

Journeyland Student Volunteer

Student/Parent Agreement

We are so excited you are interested in serving in Journeyland. At Journey, serving is one of our core values and we believe it is never too early to give back to others by sharing the time and talents God has given you.

We are passionate about the work we do to engage children and families in the process of knowing Jesus - and our volunteers are, too. For student volunteers, serving in Journeyland takes both preparation and commitment, on the part of both the student and the parent. What does that mean?

- Being on time: We ask all Journeyland volunteers to arrive and be in place 30 minutes before service begins. Creating and maintaining a safe environment requires us to have volunteers in place before kids arrive. If this will be a concern for you, please talk with us about it before you sign up to volunteer.
- Being responsive: Creating a safe environment also requires we know how many volunteers will be serving each week, as far in advance as possible. We ask that you talk with your family and decide the best point of contact for scheduling requests, whether that's you or a parent or guardian. While most requests come via email, you can also let us know if you prefer additional communication via email, phone, or text.
- Being prepared: If you are serving with the creative team or know you will be working with a particular class or group, we may ask you to spend a few minutes the week before a service preparing in advance.
- Being flexible: Above all, we ask our student volunteers to be flexible. If you prefer to serve with a particular age group, we will always do our best to keep that in mind, but ask that you be willing to serve where the need arises.
- Being knowledgeable: We ask all of our volunteers in JourneyLand to read our volunteer handbook. We ask that you support and agree to adhere to the policies, procedures, vision and mission outlined in the handbook.

By signing below both you and your parents or guardians agree to these requirements. If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact the Journeyland team at any time. Thank you so much for helping engage children and families in the process of knowing Jesus!
